

AARUPADAI VEEDU MEDICAL COLEGE & HOSPITAL

A Symposium on “RECENT UPDATES IN TUBERCULOSIS”

Organised by
Department of Community Medicine

Venue: Annapoorani hall (16-10 -18)

The Department of Community Medicine in association with Department of Chest & TB and Department of Microbiology conducted a symposium on “Recent updates in Tuberculosis” on 16-10-18. Dr Arun Daniel, Assistant Professor, Department of Community Medicine and the organising secretary for the CME started the proceeding with the prayer song by the students followed by the welcome address delivered by Dr Arunachalam , HOD, Department of Community Medicine. Dr B.Kanchana, Dean gave the presidential address. Felicitation was done by DR. Chellapillai, Medical superintendent.

Dr.Kavita Vasudevan, HOD, Department of Community Medicine , IGMC&RI, Puducherry spoke on “Epidemiology and recent RNTCP updates of TB”. Dr.Hemalatha G, Associate Professor , Department of Microbiology, MAPIMS, Melmaruvathur spoke on “Recent Diagnostic advances in Tuberculosis” While Dr.S.Mathanraj, Associate Professor, Department of Chest & TB briefed the gathering on “Clinical Management of Tuberculosis-Recent updates” High tea was served for the gathering. Dr.T.Prasad, Assistant Professor, department of community medicine delivered the vote of thanks. The CME was registered with Tamilnadu Medical council for CME credit points.

A Symposium on “RECENT UPDATES IN TUBERCULOSIS”

