Functions:

The duties of the Anti-Ragging Squad include, but is not limited to

- Adhering to a duty roster;
- Remaining vigilant and agile at all times, and also providing
- necessary details so that the older students as well as the freshers can easily approach members;
- Identify the vulnerable spots and areas for potential ragging
- Making surprise checks in vulnerable places in the campus such as hostels, common students' rooms, playgrounds and bus or any other areas, even at odd hours, for which the Anti-Ragging Squad shall be duly empowered;
- Making discreet enquiries regarding compliance and adherence to these regulations by the seniors;
- Conducting anonymous surveys that may be random, to identify possibly unreported incidents of ragging as designed by the college
- Checking freshers for any injuries or indirect evidence of possible ragging, such as inability to stay awake during the day, indicating possible ragging throughout the night or inability to sleep due to fear of ragging;
- Informing the authorities concerned to rectify issues such as dark stretches due to fused bulbs on the campus etc.
- Making on-the-spot and other necessary enquiries on incidents of ragging and reporting to the Anti-Ragging Committee;
- Reporting all cases of ragging to the Head of the Institution, as may be required;
- Making entries regarding timings and details of checking including remarks or findings, if any, in a register, kept in the hostel.
