

AARUPADAI VEEDU MEDICAL COLLEGE & HOSPITAL

KIRUMAMPAKKAM, PUDUCHERRY – 607 403

INTERNS ORIENTATION PROGRAM

A service orientation program for to incoming CRRIs was organised by The Dean-HPE & MEU on 26/03/19, Tuesday, 9-11.30 AM. 71 newly joined CRRIs participated in the program.

The program began with invocation. Dean HPE welcomed the gathering. Dean, AVMCH, Dr. Muralitharanspoke on the topic “What does it mean to be intern? He equated internship to the metamorphosis of pupa into a beautiful butterfly. This was followed by the explaining of hospital policies & practices by Dr. Jaya Singh, Medical superintendent. Dean –HPE Dr. Mahalakshmi explained on the learning opportunities available during internship. HOD of Surgery, Dr. Kanchana spoke on the roles and responsibilities of the CRRIs in OPDs and wards. RMO Dr. Prabhu Shankar explained to them on their roles in high dependency units and A&E departments. HOD of Community Medicine, Dr. Arunachalam spoke on the role of CRRIs in the effective running of the Health Centres & Camp Activities. Emeritus Professor of Medicine Dr. Vijayalakshmi Lal, anchored the discussions centred on “Doctors” Touch-A TED Talk”. Dr. Kavitha, NABH Co-Coordinator, explained the Infection control policies of the hospital.

The exam toppers in Final MBBS Part 2 exams were announced and were presented with a congratulations’ card. The meeting came to close with rendering of the national anthem.