

Dr.Arunkumar.B, Assistant Professor Physiology was awarded the International Best Researcher Award for his paper publication on “Differences in sympathetic activity in normotensives, prehypertensives and hypertensive individuals” conducted by the RULA (Research under Literal Access) International Awards organisation at Grandeur hall, Breeze Residency, Trichy on 26th January 2020. RULA is an International organisation accredited by the World Research Council and United Medical Council with its Administrative Headquarters being situated in Winchester, USA. There were around 500 International and National participants from all fields of science present for the program; out of which 100 delegates received the International Award on that day.